This traditional house set on a plot of 986m² and a total build area of 198,45m² has been fully renovated and has an independent guest annex, situated in an elevated position with breathtaking views and south facing terrace and pool, within walking distance to a local cafe and restaurant.

MAIN HOUSE:

Upon entering the main house, you are greeted by a bright and spacious living room, seamlessly connected to a modern, fully-equipped kitchen (electric hob, steam oven, extractor fan, dishwasher, fridge-freezer). There is also a guest bathroom with a shower.
A few steps lead to a hallway that connects the bedrooms, with a small yet functional office space created in the corridor.
The first bedroom, while cozy, offers plenty of storage options.
At the end of the corridor, you'll find a bathroom with a bath and a spacious, well lit double bedroom. Additionally, an attic is available for storage.
The master suite, accessed through impressive wooden doors, is a highlight, featuring a dressing room and an en-suite bathroom (still in need of finishing the renovation).

GUEST ANNEX:

The charming annex features an open-plan living area, a fitted kitchen (electric hob, oven, fridge, extractor fan, washing machine), a double bedroom, and a bathroom with shower.
Ideal for hosting family or friends, this self-contained space ensures privacy and comfort for guests.

OUTDOOR AREA:

The property boasts south-facing terraces, perfect for soaking up the sun.
A saltwater pool is positioned to offer scenic views and ample space for relaxation.
Several leisure areas have been thoughtfully designed throughout the grounds, making the most of the beautiful outdoor space.
Large terrace with outdoor kitchen/BBQ area.
The land is easy to maintain, with low upkeep required for the landscaped areas.
Large storage /tool shed, to store outdoor things, tools or bikes.
Two separate entrances offer convenience and flexibility in access.
